

Health and Safety Policy Statement

Bawden Contracting Services Ltd (BCS Ltd) Health and Safety Policy (hereafter referred to as 'the Policy') forms an integral part of the organisation's integrated ISO 9001:2000, ISO 14001:2004, OHSAS 18001:1999 Quality, Environmental and Health & Safety Management System.

The Organisation undertakes to provide, maintain and improve the working environment for all employees. It is committed to providing information, training and supervision as necessary with the aim of continually improving its health and safety performance. This responsibility extends to the health and safety of other individuals who may, from time to time, be affected by BCS Ltd activities.

All relevant legislation and codes of practice will be rigorously adhered to and the Organisation will keep abreast of all legislative and regulatory updates and implement these where applicable.

The allocation of safety-related duties and arrangements to implement the Policy are set-out within the Organisation's policy manual.

Directors and Managers of BCS Ltd are responsible, both individually and collectively for ensuring that health and safety matters are given the highest priority.

The Policy will be kept up to date and will be reviewed on a regular basis by the Directors to ensure it remains relevant and appropriate; this review will be conducted no less than once per annum. Any changes to the Policy will be brought to the attention of all employees.

It is the responsibility of all employees of BCS Ltd to ensure they comply with the Policy at all times; all employees are made aware of this obligation.

The Policy can be shown freely to other interested parties.
